ADMINISTRATIVE RESOLUTION NUMBER FOURTEEN

BOARD OF DIRECTORS RULES AND REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE PROCESS OF CONSIDERING AND ADOPTING APPROPRIATE RULES RELATING TO INTERNAL BOARD ACTIVITIES AND THE SPECIFIC RULES AS ATTACHED

WHEREAS, Article III, Section Two of the Parkfairfax Condominium Unit Owners Association Bylaws assigns the Board of Directors with "...all the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Unit Owners Association" and further states that the Board of Directors "...may do all such acts and things as are not by the Condominium Act, The Declaration or by these Bylaws required to be exercised and done by the Unit Owners Association"; AND

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors deems it necessary to establish an appropriate set of rules relating to governing Board of Directors' internal activities; AND

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the Board of Directors to institute such rules from time to time;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the following rules relating to governing Board of Directors' internal activities be adopted:

- A. PROCEDURE FOR ADOPTION: Rules, amendments to rules, or amendments to the procedure for adopting rules relating to internal Board of Directors activities, may be presented for recordation and public reading at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors or any Special Meeting not called for a single purpose, and considered at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors.

The Secretary or legal counsel will review the proposed rule for consistency with the Condominium Act and Condominium Instruments, the Bylaws of the Parkfairfax Condominium Unit Owners Association, and previously adopted rules and/or resolutions and make a report to the Board of Directors.

The proposed rule, amendment to rule, or amendment to the procedure for adopting a rule may be amended and/or adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors at the regularly scheduled meeting following recordation and public reading. If the rule is adopted, it shall be treated as an amendment to this resolution and shall be appropriately numbered and attached hereto.

Amendments to a specific rule or the procedures set forth herein shall require a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the quorum present at any single meeting. (When not following the above procedure--see "Waiver" below).

- B. DURATION: This resolution and appended rule(s) shall remain in effect for a period of one year, but in no case later than thirty (30) days after each Annual Meeting, when the Board of Directors shall reconsider its governing rules.
- C. WAIVER: The rules adopted, or any single rule adopted and attached hereto, may be waived by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Directors present at any duly called meeting of the Board of Directors for the duration of that meeting only.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

REVISED May 21, 2025

I. ANNUAL MEETING

The Association-owned Condominium units shall be registered for purposes of establishing a quorum and shall not be voted on at the Annual Meeting.

President taking action or authorizing expenditures between Board meetings. The President is prohibited from taking actions not explicitly enumerated in the Bylaws without Board approval unless all of the following conditions are met:

- 1) Said action or expenditure does not contradict direction provided by the Board as a whole.
- 2) Immediate action is required to avoid significant damage to the Association, and calling a Special Meeting of the Board of Directors or calling electronic vote is not practical.
- 3) The President is limited to authorizing one expenditure of $10,000 between meetings.
- 4) All actions must be reported & assented to by the Board at the next regular Board meeting.
- 5) No action of the President will be in conflict to the Bylaws or the Condominium Act.
- 6) Determining election outcomes when multiple At-Large seats are open. At an Annual Meeting where there are elections for more than one At-Large seat, either for the filling of the remaining part of a three-year term due to a resignation, or election to a regular three-year rotation seat, the term years granted to a winning candidate will be assigned in the descending order by the number of votes given to a candidate at the Annual Meeting. Thus, if there are multiple At-Large seats to be elected, one or more for a three-year term and one or more for the remaining years of an unexpired term, the At-Large candidate receiving the most votes shall be awarded the three-year term(s) and the At-Large candidate receiving the next highest vote levels (s) shall receive the two or one-year unexpired term(s), and so on.

II. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The President shall be authorized to exercise the authority of the Board of Directors between meetings of the Board of Directors when action needs to be taken. An affirmation vote of the Board may be taken at the next Board meeting if appropriate.

The President shall be liaison to Management, and the Treasurer shall be a liaison on financial matters.

2. Board Officials:

As Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised edition, allows appointment of other officials of the organization, the following Board Officials may be appointed and approved by the Board.

Historian: There may be a Historian of the Unit Owners Association who shall be charged with research on the history of Parkfairfax and any facts pertinent thereto. The Historian shall prepare a narrative account of the society's activities during his or her term of office, which will become a permanent part of the society's official history.

Curator: There may be a Curator who shall serve as custodian of any objects of value that may belong to the Unit Owners Association.

Librarian: There may be a Librarian who shall have custody of the collected books and other written or printed materials not otherwise assigned to another section, person, or staff of the Unit Owners Association.

Sergeant-At-Arms: There may be a Sergeant-At-Arms appointed by the President to assist in maintaining order in meetings of the Association and the Board of Directors and do other such duties as the President or the Board of Directors shall assign from time to time.

Parliamentarian: There may be a Parliamentarian appointed by the President to advise the Chair of the Board of Directors on parliamentary procedure (as provided in Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised edition).

3. Selection of Member when a Member Resigns:
 - A. Notice is given to residents of the Ward or At-Large (depending on type of seat) informing them of the vacancy.
 - B. The notice shall request residents to submit their names on or before a date if they desire to serve on the Board.
 - C. The Board is to schedule interviews of prospective members as necessary, but not later than thirty days after submission of their application.
 - D. The new member shall be chosen by a method decided upon by the Board when it meets to select the new member. The meeting to select the member is to be held as soon after interviews as possible.
4. Presidential Succession: When neither the President nor the Vice President is able to serve as Chief Executive Officer of the Board of Directors, or leaves the position of President or Vice President, then the order of succession shall be first the Secretary, second the Treasurer, and thereafter Board members by seniority. To be able to serve as Chief Executive Officer, one must be an elected member of the Board of Directors; therefore, if either the Secretary or Treasurer is appointed to perform that function and is not a member of the Board elected by the owners, succession shall pass to the next elected person in order described above.
5. Members' Access to Association Records: Because the Virginia Condominium Act 5-1-1944 limits access by owners to certain books and records kept by or on behalf of the Association; and because legal counsel for Parkfairfax has rendered an opinion that:

"No member of the community has rights which are greater as a result of their membership on the Board of Directors except to the extent otherwise necessitated by their duties as a member of the Board" (letter from Denise L. Palmieri, June 20, 1994); the following subsections of the Virginia Condominium Act 55-79.74:1.B governing availability for inspection and copying of Association records, shall be applied for all members of the Board of Directors in the manner prescribed below:

- 1) "Personnel matters or a person's medical records": never, except by two-thirds vote of the entire board at a duly called meeting;
- 2) "Communications with legal counsel or attorney work product": Written materials are available for review at all times. Copying of materials is allowed by majority vote of the board members present at a duly called meeting, provided that the confidentiality of any such product is honored. Exceptions are material related to pending litigation and collections accounts identified by the name of the unit owner, which are detailed in items 4 and 5.
- 3) "Pending litigation": written attorney communications and work products related to pending litigation are available for review at all times. Copying of any materials not otherwise distributed to all board members by legal counsel or the president is allowed by a two-thirds vote of the entire board at a duly called meeting.
- 4) "Pending matters involving formal proceedings for enforcement of the association documents or rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto," including collections accounts or the results of covenants hearings identified by the name of the unit owner: available for review or copying if authorized by a two-thirds vote of the entire board at a duly called meeting.
- 5) "Meeting minutes or other records of an executive session of the executive organ held pursuant to subsection B of 55-79.75 of the Virginia Condominium Act: available for review at all times. Copying of materials is allowed by majority vote of the Board members present at a duly called meeting, provided the confidentiality of this material is honored."

If at any Annual Meeting, no candidate is nominated for a vacancy on the Board of Directors, the Board shall fill that vacancy as required by the Bylaws and these rules, and the person elected shall serve until the next Annual Meeting.

III. COMMITTEES

1. Any communication from a committee to residents shall be governed by the appropriate terms of reference for the committee. Other communications must always be reviewed by Management and approved by the Board of Directors.
2. Liaison: There shall be a Liaison between the Board of Directors and each Standing Committee. Members of the Board of Directors shall be appointed by the Board of Directors to act as liaisons to each committee. The Board of Directors may designate a Liaison to an Ad Hoc Committee.

Suggested Liaison functions:

The purpose of the Board of Directors Liaisons to committees is to establish one formal means of communication between committees and the Board of Directors.

The Liaison is expected to:

- "Ensure Board of Director's requests are communicated to the committee;
- "Ensure the committee functions within the constraints imposed by the various documents governing the Association;
- "Ensure the needs of the committee are communicated to the Board of Directors, Association Staff, or Management as appropriate; and
- "Ensure the response, in whatever form, is adequate and timely.

3. Survey: Any committee wishing to do any sort of survey must first present the survey to the Board of Directors for approval.
4. Representation: Any correspondence or other communication purporting to represent Parkfairfax or the Unit Owners Association from a committee to a person or authority outside of the Association must be approved by the Board of Directors and reviewed by Management prior to issuance or contact.

Only the President, General Manager, and the President's designees are authorized to incur expenses for the Association with the lawyers, engineers, or other similar contractors. All between meeting authorizations for expenses incurred under this section will be ratified by the Board at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting.

Upon the receipt of the written request of at least three Directors via e-mail or US mail, access to legal counsel between meetings shall be called by the President with three business days notice to each director given by e-mail or mail. Such access to legal counsel may be via e-mail, phone, or in-person meetings.
